

Attention Ethiopians and Persons of Ethiopian Origin Living Abroad with Professional Skills

The Ethiopian Expatriate Affairs Directorate General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in collaboration with the IOM, UNDP and the Ministry of Finance and Economic Development, has initiated a new program, the Migration for Development in Ethiopia Program (MIDEth). Its mission is to facilitate the transfer of knowledge and technology to Ethiopia through the efforts of Ethiopians and persons of Ethiopian origin living abroad with professional skills in the areas of higher education, health, and water.

The MIDEth program will cover the following expenses:

- A round-trip ticket to Ethiopia;
- A university-based salary, a furnished house or housing allowance and US $300.00.

For those who are interested in this unique opportunity to serve your country, please submit the following:

- An application letter identifying your area of interest, the institution or university in which you would like to work, your anticipated start date and duration of service; and,
- An updated curriculum vitae or resume.

Please submit these documents to the Embassy of Ethiopia or the nearest consulate office.
